Cultural Awareness and Diversity Appreciation:

All 12 high schools have trained a group of four staff members who are trainers in the National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI) model for cultural awareness and diversity appreciation. These campus teams have trained at least a third of their staff members in this model. They will train the next 1/3 of the staff over the next school year (2004-05) and the last 1/3 by the end of the 2005-06 school year. Each campus team is to work as a group to develop a plan for their campus to continue the training at ever deepening levels and to address campus-specific needs in the area of cultural awareness and appreciation. AISD is preparing to expand this training to the middle school level.
