This and all other project documents and all ideas, arrangements, and plans indicated or represented by such documents, all project documents are the instruments of service, are the property of LPA and may not be used in whole or in part for any project or purpose other than the project specifically identified in the agreement between LPA and Client. LPA hereby gives limited notice that any unauthorized use of these documents shall be undertaken at the sole risk and liability of the unauthorized user and with the express understanding that there will be no liability whatsoever against LPA, its officers, directors, employees, agents, or consultants for any unauthorized use. Any such unauthorized use may be subject to claims, demands, losses or expenses including but not limited to attorney's fees and costs arising directly or indirectly from the unauthorized use of these documents. Visual contact with these documents shall constitute prima facie evidence of acceptance of these restrictions. If errors, omissions, or conflicts are discovered in these documents, LPA must be notified in writing immediately so that corrective measures may be implemented. LPA will not be responsible for any modifications made to these documents by any party other than LPA. LPA will not be responsible for any use of these documents on any other project, including any extensions of this project, unless LPA has been specifically employed for such subsequent use or has given its written permission for such use. Any such use by others without such permission or employment will be at their sole risk and they agree to hold LPA harmless from all claims, damages, and expenses including attorney's fees arising out of such use. Submission or distribution of these documents to meet official regulatory requirements or for other purposes in connection with this project is not to be construed as publication in derogation of LPA's reserved rights. These documents are not a representation of as-built or existing conditions. LPA, and its consultants, cannot be responsible for the accuracy concerning the accuracy of documents, and are not responsible for any deviations from the construction documents and the existing conditions.
