PROCEEDINGS

Preliminaries

- The meeting was called to order by Dr. Jane Ross at 4:33 p.m. in the Board Auditorium of the Carruth Administration Center.
- There were no public comments or items from members.

Reinvention Roadmap Update

- Matias Segura, Operations Officer, went over the following points:
  - The roadmap is organic it allows for continuing review and input from the Board and the community along the way.
  - The FABPAC will serve as a sounding board.
  - The City Council recently passed a resolution in support of continuing support for AISD efforts.
  - Thorough data collection is an initial step.
  - We will be looking at schools as part of defined regions.
  - A multiple-scenario approach will also be taken.
  - We're targeting October 2019 for the Board to make a determination on any impacted campuses.
- With Chief Finance and Operations Officer, Nicole Conley-Johnson, and Superintendent, Dr. Paul Cruz, joining Mr. Segura, discussion points included:
  - Guiding principles are currently in draft form and will be available to apply to apply to the process.
  - It would be good to have a point at the end of the process to assess the level of success.
  - We still need more thinking around how we define the regions, but we're certainly not looking at defining small planning areas.
  - An underutilized school is not necessarily an automatic target for consolidation.
  - We need to stay ahead of the media and make sure all of this is seen in a positive light.
  - We hope to strengthen our position for any future bond support by assuring our respect for the taxpayers' money.

- Facility utilization percentages don't always tell the whole story, so we'll have to dig deeper in some cases.
- Putting kids in a better building isn't going to necessarily make things better for them; we can change the look of a school, but we also need to examine what's going on inside.
- The fundamental goal of all this is to put kids in better environments for academic achievement.
- Our early college high schools are working, and we're looking at adding another one at Akins.
- Communities may be gentrified, but not our schools.
- The roadmap is not just about consolidating schools it's about enhancing learning environments as fast as we can.
- This will also involve some repurposing of schools, and some boundary changes.
- Fig. 11's very encouraging to have two large governmental entities working together.
- Despite all the things we're saying, some people only hear "you're closing my school" there's never enough outreach some people only get their news from the TV.
- A lot of great things we now have were not originally well-received we just have to keep plugging away.
- We'll need teacher professional development on how to best utilize new educational spaces.
- School is a lot different now than it used to be, so all of this is a learning curve for parents as well
- Teachers really do need to be better informed about all of this.
- We simply have to involve parents and the community.

Transformation Zone Overview

- Rachel Naugle and Shannon Sellstrom of the Office of School Leadership went over the following points:
  - The formation of a Transformation Zone (TZ) is enabled by a TEA grant, and we've been working on it for over a year.
  - It's all about thinking differently, to reinvent student learning experiences and increase options that meet student needs and interests.
  - It involves increased campus-based decision-making and autonomy, and increased opportunities for collaboration with other schools.
  - Initially, 17 interested campuses applied to participate in the TZ.
  - The TZ will definitely still be a part of AISD.
  - Ultimately, eight campuses were selected to participate in the TZ.
  - The DAC can certainly receive an update as this process moves forward.
- Discussion points included:
  - As an example, the TZ would give Winn ES more flexibility in implementing its Montessori program.
  - There will be an accountability piece to this participating schools will have to show positive results.
  - The participating campuses will definitely be sharing best practices.
  - Participating schools may also come up with ways to share funding and other resources.
  - Actually, the TZ grant is federal money that is being passed through TEA.
  - We'll be trying to build sustainability, since the grant funding isn't perpetual.
  - Schools must definitely still take the STAAR tests.

Conclusion

- Due to insufficient time remaining, the Charter School Funding presentation was moved to the next meeting.
- The meeting was adjourned by Andy Anderson at 6:23 p.m.
